Sant Jordi 2024 in Les Corts

(English version)

FROM APRIL TO SEPTEMBER

BOOK LOVERS' GARDEN

For the past few springs, our garden has been growing plants in the shape of letters that look like books descending from the sky. The result is a quiet nook in the centre where readers can meet writers or simply come to read and enjoy the company of our aromatic plants.

Joan Oliver 'Pere Quart' Civic Centre

FROM 11 TO 22 APRIL

SANT JORDI CALLIGRAM CONTEST

Calligrams will be displayed in the associated shops and on the association's Instagram page. There will be an online vote and the calligram with the most votes will be announced on Sant Jordi's Day.

Organised by: Les Corts Comerç 08028 Retailers' Association in collaboration with the Pau Romeva school.

MONDAY 15 APRIL

At 6 pm, HOW TO WRITE A POEM FOR SANT JORDI

WEDNESDAY 17 APRIL

At 5:30 pm, 'DISCOVERING THE GARDEN OF THOUGHTS'

This is a reading of this family picture book and a discussion of the importance of caring for our inner nature and the world around us.

For children between the ages of 4 and 8, accompanied by their families.

Led by Teresa Roig, author of the book, and Xavier Sangenis, illustrator.

Can Deu Civic Centre

At 6:30 pm, 'NAÏM AND THE MULTICOLOURED EYES'

Naïm has an extraordinary gift known as 'synaesthesia': the magical fusion of his senses. On his journey into an uncertain future after being diagnosed with sight loss, he will learn an eternal truth: you can only see with your heart, as the most essential parts of life are invisible to the eye. Naïm's story becomes a unique testament to the human spirit's unwavering ability to adapt and find beauty, even in darkness. This presentation seeks to engage all your senses through the reading of an excerpt from the book led by Neizan, combined with music, food and more. Author: Jordi Folck.

Joan Oliver 'Pere Quart' Civic Centre
